

Candidate Information Sheet 2021

External assessment - Rules and instructions for candidates

NZQA Rules and instructions for candidates ensure fair assessment conditions for everyone. By entering, you agree to follow these. They are outlined below and are also on the back of your admission slip.

External assessment

There are two types of external assessment – the exams in an exam room, and portfolios and submissions where you develop your work in class over a period of time before it is sent in for marking.

Portfolios and submissions

You must meet NZQA's specifications, timelines and authentication requirements for work being assessed externally by portfolio or submission. Your teacher will explain what this means for their subject. All work you hand in for marking must be your own or properly referenced.

NZQA will investigate any reported possible breach of the rules. There may be a penalty for a breach.

Rules for candidates are:

- follow all instructions of any supervisor
- all work you submit for marking must be your own
- you may only have approved calculators in the exam room once they have been checked and cleared of their memory – see further information on calculators on page 2
- you must not bring the following into the exam room:
 - any electronic device unless it is switched off and inside the sealed emergency evacuation pack (an electronic device is anything that can store, communicate and/or retrieve information and includes all cell phones – see information about emergency evacuation pack on page 2)
 - any paper – except for your admission slip
 - any notes in any form
 - any watch of any type (digital or analogue)
 - correcting fluid: If you use this your booklets will not be accepted for reconsideration or review.

If you are sitting a digital exam there are other exceptions to the rules detailed on page 3.

In an exam you must not:

- talk to, communicate with or disturb other candidates
- copy another candidate's work
- communicate with the marker, including writing or drawing anything that could be viewed as offensive
- leave the exam room within the first 45 minutes or the last 15 minutes of the exam
- touch or open any emergency evacuation pack without the permission of a supervisor.

WHAT TO TAKE TO EXAMS

Admission slip

Your admission slip lists all the external standards you are sitting as exams. It does not show externally assessed standards for which you submit a portfolio or report.

Check that the details on your admission slip are correct. If there is a mistake, tell your school immediately so that your exam entries can be corrected.

- You must take your admission slip to every exam. It must be face up on your desk during all exams.
- Do not write on it in any way, at any time.
- Keep it in a safe place and do not give it to someone else to look after.

The ten-digit number in the shaded box is your NSN (national student number). The Exam Code (the letter and number) is to help you find the correct exam room and desk. Check that you sit at the desk you have been allocated to.

If you have lost or not received your admission slip, you need to either reprint a copy by logging in through the www.nzqa.govt.nz/login link on the NZQA website or request a copy from your Principal's Nominee, before you will be allowed to sit the exam. This must be signed by the Principal's Nominee.

Photo ID

You MUST bring photo ID, such as your school ID card or driver's licence, with you to any NZ Scholarship exam, or if you sit your exams at a school where you do not study.

Materials to bring for your exam

You must bring your own equipment such as black or blue pens, pencils, approved calculators, headphones (for Language and Te Reo Rangatira digital exams) and any device the school has asked you to bring to the digital exams. You may not borrow equipment from someone else during the exam.

Calculators

You may only bring a calculator into the exam for an approved subject. You may take in no more than two calculators. They must be NZQA-approved calculators.

Teachers will check that you have cleared ALL calculator memories. You can only use a calculator in the exam room if its memory has been cleared. A list of the approved calculators and subjects is published on the NZQA website www.nzqa.govt.nz/ncea/subjects/approved-calculator-list/.

You are responsible for taking the correct equipment to the exam room and making sure that it is working.

Emergency evacuation pack

You may take into the exam room items for an emergency evacuation in a clear sealable plastic bag. This pack stays under your chair and must not be touched or opened without the permission of a supervisor. Contents could include a mobile phone (switched off) or other electronic device (switched off), keys, watch, money, mask or face covering, bus/train pass and medicines.

WHAT TO DO IN EXAMS

Written exams

On the day of your exam, you must:

- arrive early (at least 20 minutes before the exam starts)
- find your exam room.

In the exam room, you must:

- listen to and follow the instructions of the supervisors
- check you are sitting at the correct desk
- check that the pack of answer booklets on the desk is yours by matching the NSN and the Exam Code from your admission slip
- check that you have all the booklets and that all the pages in each booklet are printed correctly (when you are told to open the pack)
- put up your hand if you are missing an exam booklet or have any problems
- understand you are not allowed to return if you leave the exam early, unless it is an official request for a toilet break
- not take any answer booklets or any paper provided by the supervisor out of the exam room (except for resource and separate question booklets)
- leave the plastic wrap on your desk so it can be collected for recycling.

If you arrive more than 30 minutes after the official start of the exam you will NOT be able to sit the exam.

During the exam, you must:

- read and follow the instructions on the front cover of the exam booklets
- use only black or blue pen
- write neatly, so the marker can read your answers
- not write in pencil unless instructed to do so. (Answer booklets containing work in pencil or erasable pen will not be accepted if you apply for a review or reconsideration)
- not use correcting fluid (eg Twink). (Answer booklets containing correcting fluid will not be accepted if you apply for a review or reconsideration)
- clearly cross out all work that is not to be marked
- not write any text in the cross-hatched area indicated on the NZQA answer booklet
- not request extra paper until you have completely filled the answer booklet.

At the end of the exam, you must:

- follow the instructions of the supervisor
- stop writing your answers when the supervisor tells you the exam has ended
- make sure every booklet has your NSN and Exam Code on it, especially if you were given a replacement or extra one

- check any extra paper used is labelled with the standard number and your NSN. Place them with the answer booklet for the correct standard, into the plastic bag provided and seal the bag closed
- tick the box on the front cover of any unused answer booklets to indicate you have not written anything inside and place them in a separate pile on your desk to be collected by the supervisor at the end of the exam
- hand in all your answer booklets
- take from the exam room all the equipment you brought in.

YOU must make sure that all material you want marked is handed to the supervisor before you leave. Only exam answers written in the NZQA answer booklets or on the extra paper provided by a supervisor will be marked. Any answers or work given to a supervisor after you have left the exam room will not be marked.

Digital exams

In addition to the digital exam instructions, read and follow the instructions for written exams.

Prior to the exam, you must:

- login or create an account (if you are new to NCEA) www.nzqa.govt.nz/login and memorise your username and password to use when accessing the digital exam
- prepare your own device by completing the digital exams device check (www.nzqa.govt.nz/ncea/ncea-exams-and-portfolios/external/device-readiness-check) on our website
- check your headphones are compatible with your device, if you are doing a language or Te Reo Rangatira digital exam
- install the target language keyboard on your device (for responses in te reo Māori or the target language for language exams). At the start of the exam, there is a language keyboard check page to test your keyboard has been set up correctly).

On the day of your exam, you must:

- bring your fully charged device
- bring your headphones (if you are doing a language or Te Reo Rangatira digital exam)
- (optional) bring your fully charged power bank, stored in your emergency pack
- arrive early (at the time your school has instructed, at least 20 minutes before the exams starts)
- find your exam room.

In the exam room, you must:

- sit where the supervisor tells you
- follow the supervisor's instructions to prepare your device/computer for use and log in
- set up headphones (for language or Te Reo Rangatira digital exam)
- login using the 'Access your digital exam' tile on the NZQA homepage using your NZQA Student Login details
- follow all instructions given in the exam
- enter the access code provided by the supervisor to start the exam
- put your hand up if you decide you do not want to answer the exam digitally. (The supervisor will provide your pack of exam booklets. Check the booklets match your NSN and Exam Code). You cannot switch back to the digital exam.

During the exam, you must:

- request the NZQA-supplied note-making paper from the supervisor, if required. (This must be returned to the supervisor before you leave the exam. It will not be marked)
- complete the standard you started digitally before requesting to switch to paper. (You cannot write some of your answers digitally and the rest in an answer booklet).

At the end of the exam, you must:

- submit your answers as instructed
- hand in note-making paper and ALL answer booklets where provided
- follow the supervisor's instructions to log off and pack up the equipment.

Digital exam data collection

By sitting a digital exam, you are agreeing that NZQA can collect and keep digital data about your exam activity.

This activity data may include, but is not limited to:

- your mouse movements and clicks
- any screen information
- any times you are locked out
- all saved versions of your answers.

NZQA will keep this data safe and not share it in any way externally that could identify you. NZQA may use it to identify possible breaches of the rules or improve future exam design.

Using the contact form on the NZQA website, you may request a copy of your screen information, the times you were locked out, and your end state answers. For security reasons relating to identifying breaches and unlawful activity, NZQA does not provide copies of your mouse movements and clicks, or progressively saved versions of your answers prior to the end state answer.

If you do not agree to NZQA collecting and keeping this data, you need to tell your Principal's Nominee. You should not sit an exam digitally.

Exam clashes

If you have two or more exams on at the same time you have an exam clash. Check your timetable for an exam clash immediately. If you have a clash you need to talk to your Principal's Nominee.

Derived grade

You may apply for a derived grade if:

- you were not able to sit the exam because at the time of the exam you were sick, injured or there was some special situation beyond your control, or
- you think that you did not do as well as you could have in the exam because you were sick, you were injured or there was some special situation beyond your control.

Collect an application form from your school. If you need more information talk to your Principal's Nominee.

For all exams and portfolio submissions (Design and Visual Communication, Technology, Level 3 Visual Arts and Level 3 Education for Sustainability), hand the completed application form and documented supporting evidence to your school as soon as possible. This must be before 5.00pm on Thursday 16 December 2021.

There is no derived grade for NZ Scholarship.

If you do not meet the deadlines your application may not be accepted by NZQA. Applications for a derived grade will not be accepted after results have been released in January.

Return of your marked NCEA exams

If you sat an NCEA exam, your marked exam can be accessed through your NZQA Student Login in late January. It is important you create an NZQA Student Login account if you do not have one. NCEA exam booklets will not be returned in the mail.

Return of your marked NZ Scholarship exams

NZ Scholarship answer booklets will be returned in February to the New Zealand address provided to NZQA. If you change your address, tell us your new address by email to DMLR@nzqa.govt.nz or phone 0800 697 296 before 10 January 2022. Address changes after this date will be too late for your booklets to be sent to the new address.

Return of portfolios

Design and Visual Communication portfolios and Technology folders will be returned to your school in February 2022. Level 3 Education for Sustainability reports will not be returned.

Level 3 and NZ Scholarship Visual Arts portfolios will be returned to you before Christmas to the address provided to NZQA as at 10 September 2021. The result summary sheets can be accessed through your NZQA Student Login account.

Portfolios and workbooks returned to NZQA because of an incorrect address and unclaimed, will be destroyed at the end of June 2022.

Overseas addresses

We do not return Scholarship booklets or Visual Arts portfolios to an overseas address, unless you request this by 1 March 2022 and pay a fee. A form is available on the NZQA website: www.nzqa.govt.nz/audience-pages/secondary-schools-and-teachers/forms/
